GOLMAR Sistemas de Comunicación, S.A. COOKIES POLICY

1. ¿What are Cookies?

The website www.golmar.es, owned by GOLMAR SISTEMAS DE COMUNICACIÓN S.A., uses cookies and other files of similar functionality.

A "Cookie" is a small file that is stored on the user's computer, Tablet, Smartphone or any other device with information about browsing.

The set of "cookies" of all our users helps us to improve the quality of our website, allowing us to control which pages are useful, which are not and which are susceptible to improvement.

Cookies are essential for the functioning of the Internet, providing countless advantages in the provision of interactive services, facilitating browsing and usability of our website. In any case the cookies could damage your computer. On the contrary, the fact that they are active helps us to identify and resolve errors.

2. ¿What kind of cookies do we use?

ACCORDING TO THE ENTITY THAT MANAGES IT

Own Cookies: those that are sent to your computer from our own equipment or domains and from which we provide the service that you request us.

Third party cookies: those that are sent to your device from a equipment or domain that is not managed by us, but by another collaborating entity. Such as, for example, those used by social networks, or external content such as Google Maps.

ACCORDING TO THE LENGTH OF TIME THAT THEY REMAIN ACTIVE

Session Cookies: temporary cookies that remain in the cookie file of your browser until you leave the website, so that none is recorded on the hard drive of your computer. The information obtained through these cookies is used to analyze web traffic patterns. In the long run, this allows us to provide a better experience to improve the content and facilitate its use.

Persistent Cookies: stored in the hard disk and our web reads them every time you make a new visit. A permanent website has a certain expiration date. The cookie will stop working after that date. We generally use these cookies to facilitate shopping and registration services.

ACCORDING TO THEIR PURPOSE

Strictly necessary: these cookies are necessary to facilitate the correct browsing of our website and ensure that the content is loaded efficiently, allowing the correct use of the different options or services that exist in it such as making the purchase process or control fraud linked to the security of the service. Analytical and aggregate cookies are included to count site traffic and pages visited.

Analytics and optimization: these cookies are our own or third party cookies that allow us to optimize your experience on the website by evaluating its performance and improve by adding new features.

Personalization: allow us to store user preference information to improve the quality of our services and to offer a better experience through recommended products. Some of them can be multi-device.

Behavioral advertising: These cookies are used to store information on user behavior obtained through continuous observation. Thanks to them, we can know the browsing habits on the website and display advertising related to your browsing profile.

Valuation: generates anonymous identifiers for the correct functioning of customer opinions on purchased products.

Cookie session: these cookies allow sharing data derived from behavioral advertising cookies with third party providers of www.golmar.es so that they can personalize their digital advertising on web pages, social networks and any digital support that allows it.
